GENERAL RAIL STRIKE NOT TO OCCUR IS WORD

Definite Assurance Given
That No Sweeping Tie-
Up Will Come.
SETTLEMENT FAR OFF
Shopmen Will Not Agree
To President's Request
It is Predicted.

Washington, August 9.—Definite assurances were given here today by rail union heads that there will not be a formal, general railroad strike. With complete failure of forecast for all settlement proposals far advanced, this assurance darted out from the constantly darkening industrial sky as the one bright ray of hope against absolute paralysis of the country's railway systems.

It came from men gathering here for a parley Friday at which every union worker connected with railroad transportation will pledge financial and moral support to the shopcraft strikers and urged unwavering continuance of the tie up.

From unimpeachable sources it was learned that the ranks of the strikers will be augmented after the Friday meeting but not by formal strike calls.

One action of the coming conference regarded as a certainty, will be the sanctioning of every locomotive engineer and fireman to determine for himself whether railroad equipment entrusted to his care is in fit condition for usage and to quit work if it is not.

Submission to the shopcrafts council of President Harding's latest peace proposal—already assured of rejection, by the union men—was scheduled for today. Inability of two of the eight men who will act on the council, to reach Washington in time, will, according to Bert M. Jewell, leader of the shop workers, necessitate postponement of the conference until tonight or tomorrow.

The council, comprising representatives of the machinists, blacksmiths, boiler makers, sheet metal workers, electrical workers, car men and stationary firemen, will not make its decision until after the Friday conference which will be attended by representatives of the 16 standard railroad unions, including the big four.

With the gathering of the strikers' leaders, prospects of any immediate settlement of the controversy went a glimmering, practically all of the leaders here admitted. Today they declared it "absurd" for any one to think that the strikers would accede to the president's demand they return to work pending a decision from the railroad labor board on the contentious seniority question. According to their spokesmen, submission of the question to the board "would not be a gamble; it would be a case of stacked cards against us."

Jewell and William H. Johnston, president of the international machinists' association, jointly declared that "if the strike should be settled tomorrow it will be year before the roads can possibly get their equipment back in fit condition for safe usage." Personal investigation they said, disclosed that the railroads must repair 1,000 locomotives daily to keep pace with the normal needs of traffic while at least 70,000 cars need some minor repairs each day. They assured the roads are not making these repairs.

Warren S. Stone, head of the Brotherhood of Engineers and generally regarded as "director" of the "big four" brotherhood, is expected to arrive here Thursday night or early Friday morning.

REPORT EXPECTED TO OPPOSE FRENCH
REPRISAL PROGRAM

London, August 9.—Threatened collapse of the inter-allied indemnity conference was narrowly averted today when Premier Theunis of Belgium, submitted counter proposals to take the place of the German conditions turned in by Premier Poincare of France on Tuesday.

The danger of deadlock was not completely allayed this afternoon. France is understood to be insisting upon the right to separate action against Germany and the French already have "sanctions" in mind which include seizure of the German coal fields in the Ruhr basin.

In addition to the breach of views between Premier Lloyd George and Premier Poincare dissensions have broken out in the committee of experts which has been considering the Poincare proposals since yesterday morning.

London, August 9.—There were indications this evening that the inter-allied conference on indemnity will break down within 36 hours despite the efforts of the Belgians and Italians to save it. Premier Lloyd George called a meeting of the cabinet for tomorrow morning to consider the situation. Relations between Great Britain and France are again becoming strained.

London, August 9.—The report of the allied committee of experts to the indemnity conference which was to be presented this afternoon is expected to oppose the German reprisal program of Premier Poincare of France.

It was understood that the Belgians were making efforts to effect a compromise between the two factions in the conference. M. Jasper, head of the Belgian delegation, and his colleagues were said to have drawn up a set of new proposals to meet the demand of Premier Poincare for new German guarantees.

HARDING WILL TELL CONGRESS OF SITUATION

To Deliver Address On Industrial Crisis In Person.
WANTS ALL PRESENT
Will Take No Further Steps in Rail Crisis Until Word Received

Washington, August 9.—President Harding will go before congress next week to deliver in person an executive message dealing with the grave industrial situation confronting the country as a result of the combined rail and coal strikes.

It was this in mind that Mr. Harding notified party leaders of his desire to have a full congress assembled in Washington next Tuesday and ready for action. He is convinced that the executive branch of the government has about reached the end of its rope in dealing with the twin tie ups and he wants to be assured of legislative support in further moves.

The president will take no more steps in the rail or coal strikes until he has received from the railway executives and the railway unions on Saturday the answer to his latest proposal. Both sides meet on Friday and every indication points to a rejection of his appeal by one or both parties to the controversy.

Any efforts to provide the railway labor board with power to enforce its decisions under heavy penalties is regarded as almost certain to meet with strong opposition in congress. Organized labor defeated all efforts in this direction when the board was being created and its opposition has in no way diminished by two years.

Some opposition is expected also from the railway managements, particularly from the small group that considers there is now too much government "meddling" with the managements.

Congressional leaders frankly predicted today that if the transportation act is opened up to amendment, there will be a flood of them poured in that will keep congress busy for weeks disposing of them.

If, after receiving the expected rejection of his latest proposal, Mr. Harding definitely decides to go to congress, it is believed he will ask for two things:

1.—A specific grant of authority for the executive to take over these railroads unable to discharge their public obligations, and sufficient coal mines to insure the country against freezing.

2.—Amendment of the Esch-Cummings transportation act to provide teeth for the railway labor board, quasi judicial body that is now utterly without power to enforce the decisions that it makes.

A strong difference of opinion exists in the cabinet as to whether the president now has the authority to take over railroad or coal properties under present status. Some of the cabinet's legal authorities contend that the president already has the power; others believe that whatever the result is, it is in order to play safe all round the president will ask congress to specifically endorse such a move before it is made.

REPUBLICANS CHOICE FOR OHIO GOVERNOR

Carmi A. Thompson, of Cleveland, the administration's selection for the Republican nomination for Governor of Ohio, won by a big majority over a field of eight other candidates in Tuesday's primary.

Believe New Scale Will Be Negotiated In Coal Parley

Cleveland, August 9.—While Indiana and Western Pennsylvania operators apparently remained steadfast in the determination not to enter the joint conference which reassembles here this afternoon upon the call of President John L. Lewis to negotiate a wage scale which will end the nineteen-week tie up in the union coal fields of the United States, both operators and miners were confident today that a new scale would be negotiated and signed within a few days, and that coal would again be running over the tipples in union names early next week.

The declaration of Indiana operators to join in the wage negotiations after it had been thought that their attendance had been practically assured by secret negotiations looking to the establishment of a permanent wage tribunal came as a disappointment to both sides, but President John L. Lewis of the United Mine Workers and spokesmen for the operators who represent approximately 35 per cent of the tonnage in the central competitive field said that their action would not prevent the negotiation and signing of a new wage scale.

Appointment of a joint scale committee of about twenty members is expected to be the first action taken when the conference reassembles at 3 o'clock. Inasmuch as the terms have already been practically agreed upon little difficulty is expected in agreeing upon the terms, which will include the concession of the 1920 wage scale on the part of the operators, including the "check off" system of collecting union dues, and the waiving by the miners of demands for a five day week and six hour day.

Rumors continued to be circulated here today that operators dissatisfied with the plan of settlement, proposed would seek to halt action by an appeal to a federal court, for an injunction against the meeting, but these rumors could be traced to no reliable source.

FESS AND POMERENE ARE WINNERS

Hough, Day, Matthews and Price Appear to Be Winners
of Nominations for Judge of Supreme Court--
Fess to Receive Big Plurality.

Cleveland, August 9.—Carmi A. Thompson continued to increase his lead as figures from outlying precincts were received. With more than 5,300 precincts reported at 1 o'clock the vote for governor stood: Thompson, 128,342; Knight, 50,288; Durand, 38,466; Harvey C. Smith, 39,006.

Columbus, August 9.—That the Republican voters of Ohio have nominated Hon. Carmi A. Thompson, Cleveland, for governor; Congressman Simeon D. Fess, Yellow Springs, for United States Senator, and State Senator William Chatfield, Cincinnati, for lieutenant governor, while the Democrats selected former State Auditor Vic Donahey, Tuscarawas County, for governor; Renominated U. S. Senator Atlee Pomerene, Canton, and chose former Lieut. Governor Earl D. Bloom, Bowling Green for the lieutenant governorship, are indications available here this afternoon based upon unofficial and scattering returns from more than half of Ohio's 7,336 precincts.

Thompson's total passed the 100,000 mark as returns were tabulated from 4,750 precincts. These gave Thompson 102,876; Knight, 43,583; Harvey C. Smith 36,981; Durand, 33,060; Day 18,628; Beetham 8,050; Williams 7,984; Harry Clay Smith, 9,157; Durnell 3,400.

On the Democratic side with 4,500 precincts tabulated it was apparent that Donahey's total vote would exceed that of both opponents. The figures were Donahey 68,989; Johnson 27,434; Duffy 32,728.

Pomerene's lead was also increasing as later returns came in, and it seemed that Fess would receive more votes than all three of his opponents.

Other nominees on the state ticket appear to be:

For Secretary of State, Republican, Thad H. Brown; Democrat, W. D. Fulton.

Treasurer, Republican, Harry S. Day; Democrat, William J. Hiler.

Attorney General, Republican, E. E. Corn; Democrat, Forrest F. Smith.

For Supreme Court Judge, Republican, Benson W. Hough, and Robert H. Day; Democrat, Stanley Matthews and Tom D. Price.

Through the nomination for governor of Carmi A. Thompson, an organization candidate, supported by the Harding administration Ohio Republicans at yesterday's statewide primary refused to follow the lead of Indiana and Pennsylvania, which nominated progressives.

In a field of nine candidates Thompson's nearest rival was Homer Durand of Coshocton, a wine and beer advocate. Congressman Charles L. Knight of Akron, the leading progressive candidate ran third and Secretary of State Harvey C. Smith was fourth on the basis of returns from more than one-third of the state.

Day was a soldier candidate and author of the Ohio soldier bonus law enacted by the last legislature, of which Beetham was speaker of the house. Williams, a progressive, is publisher of a Jackson newspaper. Harry Clay Smith is a Cleveland negro publisher and Durnell a Columbus broker. Durnell's platform favored wine and beer.

The republican gubernatorial race developed the two main issues of the campaign wet and dry and progressivism, within the party.

TWENTY THOUSAND
KILLED IN TYPHOON

Shanghai, August 9.—Damage estimated at $30,000,000 was caused and 20,000 persons killed by the typhoon which ravaged the treaty port city of Swatow, according to a dispatch received by the Shanghai chamber of commerce today from the Swatow, chamber of commerce.

An appeal has been received from Hong Kong for a red cross relief expedition.

The typhoon raged for several days. It was accompanied by torrential rains. The Ursuling convent, conducted by sisters from Montreal, was wrecked. The nuns saved themselves by clinging to the beams when the flooded waters rose round the buildings.

The new typhoon reported south of Shanghai on Tuesday has abated.

It was the original storm which wrecked Swatow.

Expect Rail Executives'
Conference Will Be Sharp

New York, August 9.—The conference of 148 major railroad presidents which will meet in this city Friday to consider President Harding's latest proposal for ending the rail shopmen's strike today is expected to develop into a sharp, swift fight between the "hard shells" and the "soft shells."

It is believed that the "hard shells" will lose but not before gaining certain concessions from their softer brethren that will prevent the former from "losing face" before their workmen and among themselves.

The conference should not be a protracted one.

Before tonight, it is thought, a plan will be agreed upon by which the executives will consent to the Harding plan, but with certain reservations regarding the continuance at work of the men who have taken the places of the striking shopmen.

Public opinion—that Damoclean sword that hangs over executives and strikers alike—will be the weapon that will "pull the trick."

These statements are based upon current belief expressed by rail officials who have discussed Friday's gathering dispassionately—and, obviously, not for direct quotation.

There is the possibility of course, that these officials may be wrong.

The "hard shells" mentioned above are those executives who belong to the older school of economic thought. Several generations ago they might have subscribed to the doctrine of "the divine right of capital." Today they speak less, and more cautiously, but nevertheless they have their thoughts regarding the relationship of capital and labor and thoughts are not of the progressive school.

The "soft snells" comprise the major portion of the 148. In the main they are younger men, and not so many of them have worked their way up from the ranks, and therefore have not that decided contempt for their former brother workmen, that the men who started from the bottom so often possess. Their views on economics are a bit more progressive than the "hard shells". Also, they know something of the power of public opinion. The "hard shells" know that power; too, but it is said, do not always approve of bowing to it.

The matter of "saving face" on certain particulars is a serious one to the "hard shells" and the "soft shells" alike.

STATE OFFICIAL IS GIVEN PROMOTION

Columbus, August 9.—Dr. E. J. Schwartz, Columbus, supervisor in the division of communicable diseases State Department of Health, has been promoted to chief of the division of vital statistics, succeeding Dr. U. G. Murrell, Wilmeton, who has resigned, according to announcement made here today by State Director Snively. The appointment is effective at once.

Dr. Schwartz became a member of the state health department staff in 1918. Prior to that time he served as local health officer of Salem for 15 years.

CANDIDATE FATALLY SHOT NEAR LIMA

Lima, Aug. 9.—Deputy Sheriff Edward E. Terry, Van Wert candidate for nomination for sheriff, who was shot yesterday and probably fatally wounded by Clarence E. Bowers, 21, whom he was taking to the county jail, is lying at the point of death at the hospital today.

Bowers had just been bound over to the grand jury by Mayor Leo, on a charge of passing forged checks.

Bowers fired five times at Terry, three shots taking effect in the cheek side and hip. Bowers escaped but was recaptured.

REVENUE FREIGHT
LOADING IS LESS

Washington, Aug. 9.—The railroad shopmen's strike caused a slight diminution of the loading of revenue freight on American railroads for the week ending July 29, it was disclosed today by figures made public by the association of railway executives.

FAILURE TO PAY IS CAUSE OF DEATH

Columbus, August 8.—Endeavoring to see a boxing match without paying admission last night cost Harvey Hodgson, 28, his life. He climbed an electric light pole just outside the open air arena, came in contact with a high tension cable and was electrocuted. His body hung suspended from the cable by his knees for 45 minutes before it was removed.

His wife, recovering from an operation, is confined at a hospital less than two blocks from where Hodgson was killed. He had visited her just before he climbed the pole.

His father, L. C. Hodgson, lives at 334 North Western avenue Dayton.

FIRST CASUALTY IN OPERATION OCCURS

Stanton, Ind., Aug. 9.—The first casualty in the attempt to state of Indiana to operate strip coal mines here occurred early today when Private Charles Hoskins, of Gary, member of the 83rd field signal company of Indiana national guard, was shot while sleeping in his tent near the camp of the strikebreakers. Hoskins was not seriously injured and was being cared for today in the camp infirmary.

LAST RESERVES OF COAL ARE MOVED

Pottsville, Pa., August 9.—The last reserves of anthracite coal are being moved from this section to New York and other points. Three reserves were held by the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron company. This information was telegraphed to Washington today by Mayor J. O. Berstler, in response to government inquiries as to the available supply at present.

He climbed an electric light pole just outside the open air arena, came in contact with a high tension cable and was electrocuted. His body hung suspended from the cable by his knees for 45 minutes before it was removed.

His wife, recovering from an operation, is confined at a hospital less than two blocks from where Hodgson was killed. He had visited her just before he climbed the pole.

FIRST CASUALTY IN OPERATION OCCURS

Staunton, Ind., Aug. 9.—The first casualty in the attempt to state of Indiana to operate strip coal mines here occurred early today when Private Charles Hoskins, of Gary, member of the 88rd field signal company of Indiana national guard, was shot while sleeping in his tent near the camp of the strikebreakers. The shot was fired by an unknown man who attempted to slip through a sentry. The man struck one shot which went wild and struck Private Hoskins. Hoskins was not seriously injured and was being cared for today in the camp infirmary.

of Nominations for Judge of Supreme Court--
Fess to Receive Big Plurality.

Cleveland, August 9.—Carmi A. Thompson continued to increase his lead as figures from outlying precincts were received. With more than 5,300 precincts reported at 1 o'clock the vote for governor stood: Thompson, 128,342; Knight, 50,288; Durand, 38,466; Harvey C. Smith, 39,006.

Columbus, August 9.—That the Republican voters of Ohio have nominated Hon. Carmi A. Thompson, Cleveland, for governor; Congressman Simeon D. Fess, Yellow Springs, for United States Senator, and State Senator William Chatfield, Cincinnati, for lieutenant governor, while the Democrats selected former State Auditor Vic Donahey, Tuscarawas County, for governor; Renominated U. S. Senator Atlee Pomerene, Canton, and chose former Lieut. Governor Earl D. Bloom, Bowling Green for the lieutenant governorship, are indications available here this afternoon based upon unofficial and scattering returns from more than half of Ohio's 7,836 precincts.

Thompson's total passed the 100,000 mark as returns were tabulated from 4,750 precincts. These gave Thompson 102,876; Knight, 43,553; Harvey C. Smith 36,981; Durand, 33,060; Day 18,628; Beetham 8,050; Williams 7,984; Harry Clay Smith, 9,157; Durnell 3,400.

On the Democratic side with 4,500 precincts tabulated it was apparent that Donahey's total vote would exceed that of both opponents. The figures were Donahey 68,989; Johnson 27,434; Duffy 32,725.

Pomerene's lead was also increasing as later returns came in, and it seemed that Fess would receive more votes than all three of his opponents. Other nominees on the state ticket appear to be:

For Secretary of State, Republican, Thad H. Brown; Democrat, W. D. Fulton.

Treasurer, Republican, Harry S. Day; Democrat, William J. Hiler.

Attorney General, Republican, E. E. Corn; Democrat, Forrest F. Smith.

For Supreme Court Judge, Republican, Benson W. Hough, and Robert H. Day; Democrat, Stanley Matthews and Tom D. Price.

Through the nomination for governor of Carmi A. Thompson, an organization candidate, supported by the Harding administration Ohio Republicans refused to follow the lead of Indiana and Pennsylvania, which nominated progressives.

In a field of nine candidates Thompson's nearest rival was Homer Durand of Coshocton, a wife and beer advocate. Congressman Charles L. Knight of Akron, the leading progressive candidate ran third and Secretary of State Harvey C. Smith was fourth on the basis of returns from more than one-third of the state.

Day was a soldier candidate and author of the Ohio soldier bonus law enacted by the last legislature, of which Beetham was speaker of the house. Williams, a progressive, is publisher of a Jackson newspaper. Harry Clay Smith, is a Cleveland negro publisher and Durnell a Columbus broker. Durnell's platform favored wine and beer.

The republican gubernatorial race developed the two main issues of the campaign, wet and dry and progressivism, within the party.

Expect Rail Executives'
Conference Will Be Sharp

New York, August 9.—The conference of 148 major railroad presidents which will meet in this city Friday to consider President Harding's latest proposal for ending the rail shopmen's strike today is expected to develop into a sharp, swift fight between the "hard shells" and the "soft shells."

It is believed that the "hard shells" will lose but not before gaining certain concessions from their softer brethren that will prevent the former from "losing face" before their workmen and among themselves.

The conference should not be a protracted one.

Before tonight, it is thought, a plan will be agreed upon by which the executives will consent to the Harding plan, but with certain reservations regarding the continuance at work of the men who have taken the places of the striking shopmen.

Public opinion—that Damoclean sword that hangs over executives and strikers alike—will be the weapon that will "pull the trick."

These statements are based upon current belief expressed by rail officials who have discussed Friday's gathering dispassionately—and, obviously, not for direct quotation.

GOWDY-MARSHALL FACTION RETAINS COMMITTEE CONTROL

Placing its candidates in 14 out of 24 committee districts in Greene County the Gowdy-Marshall faction in Republican politics in this county retained control of the Republican Central Committee in the primary Tuesday.

The candidates entered in opposition to the Marshall-Gowdy faction selections failed to wrest control from the Marshall-Gowdy group. They fell two short of locking control in a tie and three short of regaining the leadership lost by the Schmidt-Shoup faction several years ago.

While in some districts, each faction had committee candidates unopposed for election, in others a warm fight was waged along factional lines. This was especially true in Cedarville Township where A. H. Cresswell, the candidate of the faction opposing the Gowdy-Marshall group, defeated Harry Townsley, the Gowdy-Marshall nominee by two votes and in New Jasper Township where Ed Ballard, the Gowdy-Marshall man won over Oscar Hargrave of the opposing faction by a majority of eight votes.

The Gowdy-Marshall faction presented especially strong candidates in the rural district, while the faction but one committee district within the limits of Xenia City, that being the district represented by the Second Ward, where Frank L. Smith fought an interesting battle with George Little, and came out victorious. The three other city districts, were won by candidates opposing the Marshall-Gowdy selections. The dope was upset in Jamestown Village when L. S. O'Day, candidate of the opposing faction defeated F. M. Ogan, Gowdy-Marshall man.

The committeemen were elected as follows:

Bath Tp.—Harry Armstrong (Gowdy-Marshall) elected, unopposed.

Beaver Creek Tp.—Grant Miller (Gowdy-Marshall) defeated Forest L. Shoup (other faction.)

Cassat Creek Tp.—Dr. R. L. Haines (other faction) defeated Herbert Conklin, (Gowdy-Marshall.)

Cedarville Tp.—A. H. Cresswell (other faction) defeated Harry Townsley (Gowdy-Marshall.)

Jefferson Tp.—George B. Early (Gowdy-Marshall) defeated Jacob Hargrave, (other faction.)

Miami Tp.—Ernest Ireland (other faction) elected without opposition.

New Jasper Tp.—Ed Ballard (Gowdy-Marshall) defeated Oscar Hargrave (other faction.)

Ross Tp.—J. H. Lackey (Gowdy-Marshall) elected without opposition.

Silver Creek Tp.—Archie Gordon (Gowdy-Marshall) defeated A. M. Bryan (other faction.)

Spring Valley Tp.—L. E. Oldham (Gowdy-Marshall) elected without opposition.

Sugar Creek Tp.—Walter Spoor (Gowdy-Marshall) elected without opposition.

Osborn Village—H. E. Frahn (other faction) elected without opposition.

Fairfield Village—C. F. Snediker (Gowdy-Marshall) elected without opposition.

GOWDY-MARSHALL FACTION RETAINS COMMITTEE CONTROL

Placing its candidates in 14 out of 24 committee districts in Greene County the Gowdy-Marshall faction in Republican politics in this county retained control of the Republican Central committee in the primary Tuesday.

The candidates entered in opposition to the Marshall-Gowdy faction selections failed to wrest control from the Marshall-Gowdy group. They fell two short of locking control in a tie and three short of regaining the leadership lost by the Schmidt-Shoup faction several years ago.

While in some districts, each faction had committee candidates unopposed for election, in others a warm fight was waged along factional lines. This was especially true in Cedarville Township where A. H. Cresswell, the candidate of the faction opposing the Gowdy-Marshall group, defeated Harry Townsley, the Gowdy-Marshall nominee by two votes and in New Jasper Township where Ed Ballard, the Gowdy-Marshall man won over Oscar Hargrave of the opposing faction by a majority of eight votes.

The Gowdy-Marshall faction presented especially strong candidates in the rural district, while the faction won but one committee district within the limits of Xenia City, that being the district represented by the Second Ward, where Frank L. Smith fought an interesting battle with George Little, and came out victorious.

The three other city districts, were won by candidates opposing the Marshall-Gowdy selections. The vote was upset in Jamestown Village when L. S. O'Day, candidate of the opposing faction defeated F. M. Ogan, Gowdy-Marshall man.

The committeemen were elected as follows:

Bath Tp.—Harry Armstrong (Gowdy-Marshall) elected, unopposed.

Beavercreek Tp.—Grant Miller (Gowdy-Marshall) defeated Forest L. Shoup (other faction.)

Caesars Creek Tp.—Dr. R. L. Haines (other faction) defeated Herbert Conklin, (Gowdy-Marshall.)

Cedarville Tp.—A. H. Cresswell (other faction) defeated Harry Townsley (Gowdy-Marshall.)

Jefferson Tp.—George B. Early (Gowdy-Marshall) defeated Jacob Hargrave, (other faction.)

Miami Tp.—Ernest Ireland (other faction) elected without opposition.

New Jasper Tp.—Ed Ballard (Gowdy-Marshall) defeated Oscar Hargrave (other faction.)

Ross Tp.—J. H. Lackey (Gowdy-Marshall) elected without opposition.

Silvercreek Tp.—Archie Gordon (Gowdy-Marshall) defeated A. M. Bryan (other faction.)

Spring Valley Tp.—L. E. Oldham (Gowdy-Marshall) elected without opposition.

Sugarcreek Tp.—Walter Spoor (Gowdy-Marshall) elected without opposition.

Xenia Tp.—J. B. Conklin (Gowdy-Marshall) defeated Graham Bryson (other faction.)

Osborn Village—H. E. Frahn (other faction) elected without opposition.

Fairfield Village—C. F. Snediker (Gowdy-Marshall) elected without opposition.

Cedarville Village—Walter Hiff (Gowdy-Marshall) defeated W. J. Tarbox (other faction.)

Bowersville Village—C. E. Hargrave (other faction) defeated D. A. Oliver, (Gowdy-Marshall.)

Yellow Springs Village—J. N. Wolford (other faction) unopposed.

Jamestown Village—L. S. O'Day (other faction) defeated Dr. F. W.

REPUBLICANS NAME HIM FOR SHERIFF

Morris Sharp of Jamestown, was the successful bidder for the Republican nomination for sheriff of Greene County at the polls Tuesday. He defeated George Birch and E. E. Lighthiser by a big majority.

Ogan (Gowdy-Marshall.)

Spring Valley Village—Roy Starbuck (Gowdy-Marshall) defeated Charles E. Harnisch (other faction.)

Bedbrook Village—C. S. Sears (Gowdy-Marshall) defeated G. D. Morris (other faction.)

Xenia, Ward 1—George Schwartz (other faction) defeated S. C. Coates (Gowdy-Marshall.)

Xenia, Ward 2—F. L. Smith (Gowdy-Marshall) defeated George Little (other faction.)

Xenia, Ward 3—John R. Beachem (other faction) defeated Louis Clos (Gowdy-Marshall.)

Federal authorities will not deal directly with requests from manufacturers and consumers for priority orders but will handle all such appeals through the state fuel commissions. A request for coal first must be filed with the state fuel commission which will judge its merits. If the need is found essential and proof is advanced that the applicant must have emergency coal which he cannot obtain from sources within his state, the request, will then be forwarded to the federal fuel commission who will render decision.

The federal commission has no anthracite coal available. Warning is given that application must not be made for coal storage.

O. N. G. LEAVES FOR ITS ENCAMPMENT

Cincinnati, Aug. 9.—Five hundred officers and men of the 147th infantry, federalized O. N. G., entrained here this morning for their annual encampment at Camp Perry, Ohio. Persons living on the line of march from the Freeman Avenue armory to the railroad station looked up from their breakfasts as they heard the rattle of drums and the steady tramp of feet and said, "more soldiers off to the mines." BOOM CRISSINGER AS HEAD OF FEDERAL RESERVE BOARD

Washington, August 9.—Expiration of the term of William P. G. Harding, governor of the federal reserve board, has brought a flood of inquiries to the White House in regard to the appointment of his successor. The "inside tip" is that if Governor Harding is not reappointed, Dr. R. Crissinger of Marion, Ohio, comptroller of the currency will be promoted to the federal reserve governorship.

Speculation, however, favors Governor Harding who is almost unanimously backed by the bankers of the country. A White House announcement on the subject is expected soon.

PROPRIETOR OF SMALLEST STORE

New York, August 9.—Milton Lubin today has the distinction of being proprietor of the smallest store in the world all because he gained five pounds in weight. This "store" which was at Times square, had a frontage of about 6 feet while the interior was a triangle three and one half feet deep. A window took up a couple of feet of the frontage. Lubin sold jewelry and did a business estimated at more than $200,000 a year. So long as his weight kept within bounds, it was easy to squeeze into the store, but with prosperity came obesity and with obesity came the inability to squeeze into the store. Lubin used to weigh 100 pounds, now he weighs 105. There lies the tragedy.

SHARP RECEIVES HIGH VOTE IN SHERIFF RACE IN GREENE COUNTY; JACKSON AND EAVEY LEAD FIELDS; RETURNS SLOW

Returns from all but four rural precincts and one city precinct were available on the local fight at a late hour Wednesday afternoon. They totaled as follows for Sheriff: Sharp 2,264, Birch-1,521, Lighthiser-1,328, for County Commissioner. Eavey-2,592; Beal-1,178, Collett-727, for Treasurer, Jackson-1,770, Van Eaton-1,479, Funderburgh-847, Shoemaker-746.

Greene County Republicans made history in the primary Tuesday when they defeated George Birch, deputy sheriff, in his campaign for the position of Sheriff and elected Morris Sharp, soldier candidate from Jamestown to the position.

It is believed to be the first occasion in the annals of Republican primaries in Greene County that a deputy sheriff has not been elected to the position ahead of him after he had served his apprenticeship in the role of deputy. In breaking the rule, Republicans gave Sharp a big majority over Birch, the second man while Ed Lighthiser, thrice defeated candidate, was a poor third.

At the same time Republicans nominated Herman W. Eavey, for county commissioner, returning big majorities over Warren Collett, of Jamestown, his nearest opponent and Mel F. Beal, Xenia, Frank A. Jackson, former Sheriff, was returned winner in the primary fight for the county treasury nomination, over a field of three other candidates, including present Sheriff L. Funderburgh, who was third in the list of candidates.

Jackson's majority picked up at the start, and carried all the way through with the exception of districts which were captured by J. S. Van Eaton, farmer candidate, who polled himself to second position in the race. Twenty-seven precincts officially available on the race for Treasurer gave Jackson 847, Van Eaton, 833, Funderburgh 529 and J. F. Shoemaker, Goes Station merchant, 276. However unofficial returns compiled from figures from all 47 precincts in the county gave Jackson 1919, Van Eaton 1,653, Funderburgh 1,065 and Shoemaker, 841.

Even the most ardent supporters of Morris Sharp were surprised at the race he made for Sheriff. Although it was believed that he had made steady gains during the last week, the tradition that "it is hard to beat a deputy" led many to doubt that he would come out on top of the heap. The failure of Lighthiser to make a better showing was anticipated in political circles, but the vote given to Birch was unexpected. Returns compiled from 27 precincts on the sheriff's race gave Sharp 1,357, Birch 715 and Lighthiser 547 and were the latest figures available.

M. A. Broadstone, incumbent, was named as Republican candidate to return to the General Assembly as Representative of Greene County, after official returns from all 47 precincts, gave him a small majority.

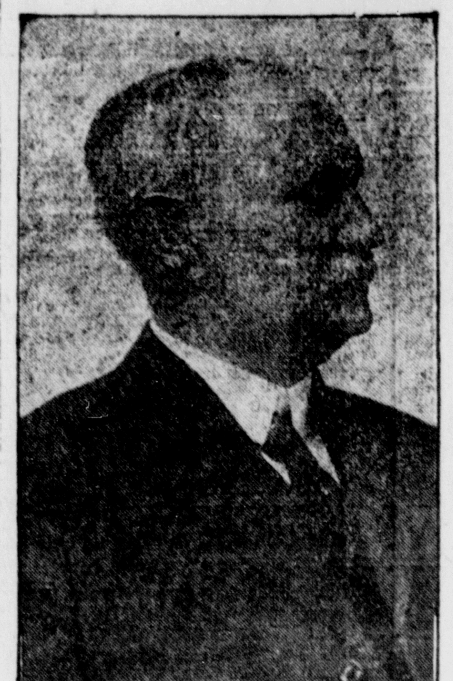

Early returns were practically all from rural precincts where Bryson, as candidate of the Farm Bureau, was given majorities in practically every case. Broadstone won the nomination when he carried every precinct in Xenia City and all villages in the county with the exception of Yellow Springs, which went to his opponent. The total vote was Broadstone 2,470; Bryson 2,236.

Herman Eavey had plenty of majority on which to go, after 27 precincts had been compiled for that office. Eavey's total was 1,327 in 27 precincts, while Collett polled 517 and Beal 520 in the same precincts. Other Republican county candidates were nominated without opposition, all polling large votes. They are R. O. Wead, county auditor; B. F. Thomas, county recorder; W. J. Davis, county surveyor; J. Kenneth Williamson, prosecuting attorney; Harvey Elam, clerk of courts and Dr. R. L. Haines, county coroner.

Democrats who came before the primary for county offices, required eight per cent of the Democratic vote at the last election, to place their names on the regular ballot in November. Although no effort was made Wednesday by the board of elections to determine the status of these candidates, it is believed that they have all obtained sufficient votes to qualify them for the regular ticket.

These county Democratic tickets are: Representative, Mrs. DeEtta Wilson; Clerk of Courts, Charles Weber; Sheriff, James Dunlap; Recorder, David C. Bradfute; Treasurer, H. A. Higgins; Auditor, Arch Copsey; County Commissioner, Ernest Thuma; Prosecuting Attorney, Geo. H. Smith. The name of Ralph M. Need was written in frequently for County Coroner and the action may win him a place on the ticket also.

IS RE-NOMINATED TO OHIO LEGISLATURE

M. A. Broadstone is the winner of the Republican nomination for State Representative over W. B. Bryson. Mr. Broadstone is seeking his second term in the legislature.

Styles BY LENORE

When in doubt, use lace. That seems to be the idea of some of the smart Frenchwomen—and Americans, too, judging by the number of lace dresses seen at smart dining places.

The frock sketched today was worn by a good-looking young woman at dinner the other evening on one of New York's fashionable roof restaurants. It is made of black lace trimmed with black fluted ribbon arranged in scrolls as is indicated in the illustration. A convenient kind of evening frock to have on hand for summer wear, week ends or restaurant wear when in town.

PARIS THE COCAINE JOBBING CENTER OF WORLD AT PRESENT

Paris—Is Paris the cocaine "jobbing centre" for the world? Paris police, spreading a net to trap dope peddlers, believe it is. With European thoroughness and French police methods famous for their ingenuity, they wait and watch and peer and pry. Every few days they make an arrest. But by their own admission, the are nearly powerless. The traffic goes on practically unabated.

Every few nights artists or other Montmartre apartment dwellers are awaked from sleep by screams and confusion. "Only a coke raid," someone says and blinds are redrawn. It is too usual to be disturbing.

The story is that cocaine jobbers get the dope from Germany for the equivalent of $100 a pound and retail it for as much as $1,500.

A regular system for smuggling cocaine into France has been established, according to the police. Baking little boxes of cocaine into loaves of bread of apple cakes is a common method for transportation. Bringing dope across the border in false-bottomed powder boxes is another. Wrist watches with no works is another popular means of evading the law.

Jack H. Saunders, proprietor of "Jack's Bar" near the Opera, well known to many Americans, has been arrested on a charge of peddling cocaine. Police allege that a Montmartre retail dope peddler who frequents a popular all night resort bought his "coke" from Saunders and that two pounds of the stuff were found in the bar room when detectives raided the place.

Saunders, however, claims that he did not know the white powder found in his place was dope and that it had been left there by a customer as security for an unpaid "book."

So strict is police surveillance that it is said to be almost impossible for a person legitimately entitled to buy cocaine for medicinal purposes to get the narcotic without being dragged into police court and compelled to prove his authority.

GREENE COUNTY GIVES BIG MAJORITY TO THOMPSON. INCOMPLETE RETURNS SHOW; BRAND LEADING FAIRBANKS FOR CONGRESS

Greene County Republican voters followed the Old Guard in the ranks of Carmi Thompson of Cleveland for Governor at the primary. Tuesday, while the Democrats in the county fell in line with Democrats over the state by casting their votes for A. V. Donahy.

Thompson, who will head the Republican state ticket next November, was an easy victor in Greene County, running well ahead of the fields, and polling big majorities in every precinct. Harvey C. Smith, present secretary of the state, made a poor showing compared with the way the dopesters had him placed, C. L. Knight, the Akron progressive, finishing in second position in the county.

Only 21 precincts were officially called off by the board of elections late Tuesday night, and no more returns were expected to be available until the board completed its official count some time late Wednesday afternoon. The 21 precincts available show Thompson 974, Knight 324, Harvey C. Smith 251, Harry Clay Smith 150, Durand 110, Day 60, Durand 54, Beetham 47.

Judge James G. Johnson of Springfield, gave Donahy a close race for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination in the county. About 12 precincts available for Democratic return, gave Donahy 76 and Johnson 53, while Duffy had 11. Judge Robins of Chillicothe, although apparently defeated in state returns, polled the high vote for lieutenant governor on the Republican ticket in Greene County, with a count of 395 in 21 out of the 47 precincts. His nearest opponent was Davis, with 245 in the meagre returns, while Chatfield, apparently successful candidate was running third.

Clarence J. Brown, of Blanchester, led in the 21 precincts available for secretary of state, having a vote of 597 over 279 polled by Thad Brown, who appears successful in returns from over the state. Wilson, candidate for the Republican nomination for Treasurer was leading in the first 21 precincts for that office while C. C. Crabbe held a majority vote in the meagre return over Corn for the attorney general nomination.

Benson W. Hough, of the Supreme Court, a candidate to succeed himself polled the highest vote in the county in 21 precincts for the judgeship, and early returns made Kinkead his running mate. Frank I. Brown, of Dayton, led Rogers of Columbus for the nomination to the court of appeals. Dr. S. D. Fess, of Yellow Springs, polled the highest Republican vote in the county in his race for the U. S. Senatorial nomination in the first 21 precincts. At that time

FUEL MACHINERY IS READY TO USE

Columbus, August 9.—Machinery for the federal control of fuel distribution during present emergency conditions is ready for operation, according to instructions, outlining working plans, received today by State Fuel Distributor Poor from federal Fuel Distributor Spencer, Washington.

Federal authorities will not deal directly with requests from manufacturers and consumers for priority orders but will handle all such appeals through the state fuel commissions.

A request for coal first must be filed with the state fuel commission which will judge its merits. If the need is found essential and proof is advanced that the applicant must have emergency coal which he cannot obtain from sources within his state, the request, will then be forwarded to the federal fuel commission who will render decision.

The federal commission has no anthracite coal available. Warning is given that application must not be made for coal storage.

Lundgren's body, covered with rags was found in a corner of the basement by police when they responded to a call that Mrs. Enger had been beaten unconscious.

Con. Paris, August 9.—Premier Lloyd George has agreed to allied control of the Ruhr district of Germany, according to an unconfirmed report from London to the newspaper L'Intransigeant this afternoon.

The Ruhr basin contains the richest coal mines in continental Europe and since the Versailles treaty was signed the French have been agitating for seizure of this district of Germany.

O. N. G. LEAVES FOR ITS ENCAMPMENT

Cincinnati, Aug. 9.—Five hundred officers and men of the 147th infantry, federalized O. N. G., entrained here this morning for their annual encampment at Camp Perry, Ohio. Persons living on the line of march from the Freeman Avenue armory to the railroad station looked up from their breakfasts as they heard the rattle of drums and the steady tramp of feet and said, "more soldiers off to the mines." Judge Stanley Root, his bailiff and court messengers in common pleas court are among the troopers while the judge's five year old grandson is along in his "sojourner" and with his own puppet packed on his shoulders.

SEEK SENIORITY

Washington, August 9.—A new group in the railway strike controversy appeared at the White House today to demand a hearing.

A delegation of "loyal" strikers on the Pennsylvania lines called upon President Harding with a request that they be permitted to retain their recently won seniority rights in any settlement of the strike that may be decided upon.

BOOM CRISSINGER AS HEAD OF FEDERAL RESERVE BOARD

Washington, August 9.—Expiration of the term of William P. G. Harding, governor of the federal reserve board, has brought a flood of inquiries to the White House in regard to the appointment of his successor. The "inside tip" is that if Governor Harding is not reappointed, D. R. Crissinger of Marion, Ohio, comptroller of the currency will be promoted to the federal reserve governorship.

Speculation, however, favors Governor Harding who is almost unanimously backed by the bankers of the country. A White House announcement on the subject is expected soon.

PROPRIETOR OF SMALLEST STORE

New York, August 9.—Milton Lubin today has the distinction of being proprietor of the smallest store in the world all because he gained five pounds in weight. This "store" which was at Times square, had a frontage of about 6 feet while the interior was a triangle three and one half feet deep. A window took up a couple of feet of the frontage. Lubin sold jewelry and did a business estimated at more than $200,000 a year. So long as his weight kept within bounds, it was easy to squeeze into the store, but with prosperity came obesity and withesity came the inability to squeeze into the store. Lubin used to weigh 100 pounds, now he weighs 105. There lies the tragedy.

SHARP RECEIVES HIGH VOTE IN SHERIFF RACE IN GREENE COUNTY; JACKSON AND EAVEY LEAD FIELDS; RETURNS SLOW

Returns from all but four rural precincts and one city precinct were available on the local fight at a late hour Wednesday afternoon. They tallied as follows for Sheriff: Sharp 2,264, Birch-1,521, Lighthiser-1,328, for County Commissioner. Eavey-2,592; Beal-1,178, Collett-727, for Treasurer, Jackson-1,770, Van Eaton-1,479, Funderburgh-847, Shoemaker-746.

Greene County Republicans made history in the primary Tuesday when they defeated George Birch, deputy sheriff, in his campaign for the position of Sheriff and elected Morris Sharp, soldier candidate from Jamestown to the position.

It is believed to be the first occasion in the annals of Republican primaries in Greene County that a deputy sheriff has not been elected to the position ahead of him after he had served his apprenticeship in the role of deputy. In breaking the rule, Republicans gave Sharp a big majority over Birch, the second man while Ed Lighthiser, thrice defeated candidate, was a poor third.

At the same time Republicans nominated Herman W. Eavey, for county commissioner, returning big majorities over Warren Collett, of Jamestown, his nearest opponent and Mel F. Beal, Xenia, Frank A. Jackson, former Sheriff, was returned winner in the primary fight for the county treasury nomination, over a field of three other candidates, including present Sheriff L. Funderburgh, who was third in the list of candidates.

Jackson's majority picked up at the start, and carried all the way through with the exception of districts which were captured by J. S. Van Eaton, farmer candidate, who polled himself to second position in the race. Twenty-seven precincts officially available on the race for Treasurer gave Jackson 847, Van Eaton, 833, Funderburgh 529 and J. F. Shoemaker, Goes Station merchant, 276. However unofficial returns compiled from figures from all 47 precincts in the county gave Jackson 1919, Van Eaton 1,653, Funderburgh 1,065 and Shoemaker, 841.

THE SUMMER GIRL

The Summer girl is always pretty. I do not exactly know why. It may be because she is living a healthy outdoor life. It may be because she has temporarily thrown off the worries of office work or family responsibility. It is quite likely because of her cool, dainty dresses, which give us a glimpse of her sunburnt throat and her rounded, healthy arms. It may be because she is on a vacation or simply because Summer is always the happiest time.

And it may be, as a friend suggested, because the observer himself is in a holiday mood and views the world and his fellow men and women through rose colored spectacles.

So there you have any number of reasons and you make take your choice, but the fact is undeniable, the Summer girl is pretty. One observant feminine friend said to me that women, as a rule, dress better in Summer than in Winter. Summer clothes cost less, that's the obvious reason. $15 does not purchase much in the way of a wool frock, but will secure a very handsome Summer one. Low shoes which reveal slim silk stockings ankles are infinitely more becoming than high shoes. Summertime foods are healthier than Winter foods. In the warm weather we eat all sorts of things that are good for us. In the Winter we are apt to make our complexions muddy with starchy food, and our noses red from rich puddings. The worst crime we can commit in the Summer is to drink too much iced water or soda water.

For that reason the Summer girl

Even the most ardent supporters of Morris Sharp were surprised at the race he made for Sheriff. Although it was believed that he had made steady gains during the last week, the tradition that "it is hard to beat a deputy" led many to doubt that he would come out on top of the heap. The failure of Lighthiser to make a better showing was anticipated in political circles, but the vote given to Birch was unexpected. Returns compiled from 27 precincts on the sheriff's race gave Sharp 1,357, Birch 715 and Lighthiser 547 and were the latest figures available.

M. A. Broadstone, incumbent, was named as Republican candidate to return to the General Assembly as Representative of Greene County, after official returns from all 47 precincts, gave him a small majority.

Early returns were practically all from rural precincts where Bryson, as candidate of the Farm Bureau, was given majorities in practically every case. Broadstone won the nomination when he carried every precinct in Xenia City and all villages in the county with the exception of Yellow Springs, which went to his opponent. The total vote was Broadstone 2,470; Bryson 2,236.

Herman Eavey had plenty of majority on which to go, after 27 precincts had been compiled for that office. Eavey's total was 1,327 in 27 precincts, while Collett polled 517 and Beal 520 in the same precincts.

Other Republican county candidates were nominated without opposition, all polling large votes. They are R. O. Wead, county auditor; B. F. Thomas, county recorder; W. J. Davis, county surveyor; J. Kenneth Williamson, prosecuting attorney; Harvey Elam, clerk of courts and Dr. R. L. Haines, county coroner.

Democrats who came before the primary for county offices, required eight per cent of the Democratic vote at the last election, to place their names on the regular ballot in November. Although no effort was made Wednesday by the board of elections to determine the status of these candidates, it is believed that they have all obtained sufficient votes to qualify them for the regular ticket.

These county Democratic tickets are: Representative, Mrs. DeEtta Wilson; Clerk of Courts, Charles Weber; Sheriff, James Dunlap; Recorder, David C. Bradfute; Treasurer, H. A. Higgins; Auditor, Arch Copsey; County Commissioner, Ernest Thuma; Prosecuting Attorney, Geo. H. Smith. The name of Ralph M. Neeld was written in frequently for County Coroner and the action may win him a place on the ticket also.

PARIS THE COCAINE JOBBING CENTER OF WORLD AT PRESENT

Paris—Is Paris the cocaine "jobbing centre" for the world? Paris police, spreading a net to trap dope peddlers, believe it is. With European thoroughness and French police methods famous for their ingenuity, they wait and watch and peer and pry. Every few days they make an arrest. But by their own admission, the are nearly powerless. The traffic goes on practically unabated.

Every few nights artists or other Montmartre apartment dwellers are awakened from sleep by screams and confusion.

"Only a coke raid," someone says and blinds are redrawn. It is too usual to be disturbing.

The story is that cocaine jobbers get the dope from Germany for the equivalent of $100 a pound and retail it for as much as $1,500. A regular system for smuggling cocaine into France has been established, according to the police. Baking little boxes of cocaine into loaves of bread of apple cakes is a common method for transportation. Bringing dope across the border in false-bottomed powder boxes is another. Wrist watches with no works is another popular means of evading the law.

Jack H. Saunders, proprietor of "Jack's Bar" near the Opera, well known to many Americans, has been arrested on a charge of peddling cocaine. Police allege that a Montmartre retail dope peddler who frequents a popular all night resort bought his "coke" from Saunders and that two pounds of the stuff were found in the bar room when detectives raided the place.

Saunders, however, claims that he did not know the white powder found in his place was dope and that it had been left there by a customer as security for an unpaid "bock."

So strict is police surveillance that it is said to be almost impossible for a person legitimately entitled to buy cocaine for medicinal purposes to get the narcotic without being dragged into police court and compelled to prove his authority.

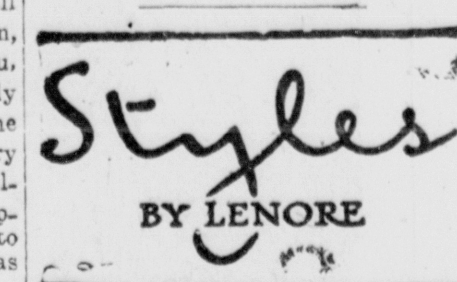

IS FATALLY INJURED.

Youngstown, Aug. 9.—Al Burns, 27 and Pat Walsh, 28, the latter probably fatally injured by a shot in the neck, were arrested by police at noon today on Logan Avenue extension. Police state that the couple admit being engaged in a battle with the sheriff of Ashtabula county at Jefferson last night.

IS RE-NOMINATED TO OHIO LEGISLATURE

M. A. Broadstone is the winner of the Republican nomination for State Representative over W. B. Bryson. Mr. Broadstone is seeking his second term in the legislature.

When in doubt, use lace. That seems to be the idea of some of the smart Frenchwomen—and Americans, too, judging by the number of lace dresses seen at smart dining places.

The frock sketched today was worn by a goodlooking young woman at dinner the other evening on one of New York's fashionable roof restaurants. It is made of black lace trimmed with black fluted ribbon arranged in scrolls as is indicated in the illustration. A convenient kind of evening frock to have on hand for steamer wear, week ends or restaurant wear when in town.

GREENE COUNTY GIVES BIG MAJORITY TO THOMPSON, INCOMPLETE RETURNS SHOW; BRAND LEADING FAIRBANKS FOR CONGRESS

Greene County Republican voters followed the Old Guard in the ranks of Carmi Thompson of Cleveland for Governor at the primary. Tuesday, while the Democrats in the county fell in line with Democrats over the state by casting their votes for A. V. Donahay.

Thompson, who will head the Republican state ticket next November, was an easy victor in Greene County, running well ahead of the fields, and polling big majorities in every precinct. Harvey C. Smith, present secretary of the state, made a poor showing compared with the way the dopesters had him placed. C. L. Knight, an Akron progressive, finishing in second position in the county.

Only 21 precincts were officially called off by the board of elections late Tuesday night, and no more returns were expected to be available until the board completed its official count some time late Wednesday afternoon. The 21 precincts available show Thompson 974, Knight 324, Harvey C. Smith 251, Harry Clay Smith 150, Durand 110, Day 60, Durand 54, Beetham 47.

Judge James G. Johnson of Springfield, gave Donahay a close race for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination in the county. About 12 precincts available for Democratic return, gave Donahay 76 and Johnson 53, while Duffy had 11. Judge Robins of Chillicothe, although apparently defeated in state returns, polled the high vote for lieutenant governor on the Republican ticket in Greene County, with a count of 395 in 21 out of the 47 precincts. His nearest opponent was Davis, with 245 in the meagre returns, while Chatfield, apparently successful candidate was running third.

Clarence J. Brown, of Blanchester, led in the 21 precincts available for secretary of state, having a vote of 597 over 279 polled by Thad Brown, who appears successful in returns from over the state. Wilson, candidate for the Republican nomination for Treasurer was leading in the first 21 precincts for that office while C. C. Crabbe held a majority vote in the meagre return, over Corn for the attorney general nomination.

Benson W. Hough, of the Supreme Court, a candidate to succeed himself polled the highest vote in the county in 21 precincts for the judgeship, and early returns made Kinkead his running mate. Frank I. Brown, of Dayton, led Rogers of Columbus for the nomination to the court of appeals. Dr. S. D. Fess, of Yellow Springs, polled the highest Republican vote in the county in his race for the U. S. Senatorial nomination in the first 21 precincts. At that time

LLOYD GEORGE ASKS $500,000 FOR BOOK.

The latest of English public persons planning to enter the memoir game, with the idea of extracting huge sums from America, is Premier Lloyd George. He hopes to make enough money from this effort to keep him comfortably the rest of his days after leaving office—in fact, his agents have mentioned a half million dollars outright as a fair price for the book.

Actual work on the book has not yet been started, nor has it been definitely decided whether Mr. Lloyd George will personally do the work or whether he will superintend the collection of data and direct some subordinate's pen in the preparation of the manuscript. It has been stated by some of the Premier's friends that if he is able to obtain a signed and sealed contract that would net him half a million dollars it might have a considerable influence on the time he would end his political career.

Although seemingly in perfect health and vigor at this time, the Premier, on more than one occasion in the last year, has emphasized the fact that he is tired, and, furthermore, that he is a comparatively poor man. He got into politics early in life and devoted almost his entire attention to the House of Commons, when he was simply a member. For sixteen years he has been a member of the Government.

The subject of memoirs was first broached to Mr. Lloyd George at about the same time Margot Asquith was retrieving her family fortunes with her book, but it was some time after that the Premier gave consent, and then an effort was made to keep secret his intention. The question now going the rounds is "how much will he tell?"

A USE FOR U. S. SHIPPING.

The coal strike, despite its obvious and various disadvantages, seems to have unearthed a real use for the nation's merchant marine, something that has not heretofore been discovered since the war. The government, according to Washington dispatches, is preparing to use no less than 160 of the shipping board steamers in the transportation of fuel from Europe.

President Harding is reported to have discussed the matter fully with Chairman Lasker of the shipping board and has consented to a trial of the plan, and Mr. Lasker believes that, without adding to existing facilities the board's ships can bring in as much as 800,000 tons a month, and that, if necessary, the total could be boosted beyond the million ton mark. Costly repairs would be necessary, however, and the outward trip would have to be made in ballast.

Nowadays many of the freighters returning to the United States are coming with less than one-third their cargo space occupied, so that the transportation of coal will fit in nicely in such an emergency. Eastern consumers have been buying great quantities of coal abroad in these last weeks and their problem may be materially simplified in this way.

The shipping board vessels were built to meet a war emergency, but most of them were launched too late to be of great service at that time. If, in this great domestic emergency they can be utilized to advantage, the people of the United States will feel much better about their enormous cost.

FISHING FOR COAL.

One of the interesting revelations connected with the coal strike is the vast volume of "river coal" available in streams flowing from the coal regions in Pennsylvania. This fuel has nothing to do with the so-called "white coal" which hydro-electric interests have been developing in recent years. It is plain black bituminous, spilled and washed into rivers in the course of production and carried by the water sometimes as far as 200 miles. It is said to exist now on some river bottoms in the form of a stratum several feet deep. The amount accessible by the process of dredging is estimable at many million tons. The water-washed fuel is considered better for many purposes than that coming fresh from the mines.

The salvaging of this coal naturally has been stimulated by the scarcity resulting from the strike. It is being fished for on a scale never known before. And it affords a notable commentary on the wasteful methods which in normal times attend the coal industry.

NEWSPAPER VALUES.

Two million dollars has just been paid for the name, good will and news franchises of the Detroit Journal. The printing press and other equipment is not included, but will be sold separately.

Perhaps many people do not realize that the biggest asset of a newspaper is not its thousands of dollars worth of machinery, but the good will, news franchises and name. An established newspaper occupying a morning or afternoon field has what is in effect an exclusive franchise. The publication of a newspaper has become such an expensive operation that once established it is almost impossible to dislodge it, and it is cheaper to buy it out at a big price than it is to attempt to put it out of business. The payment of two million dollars for the invisible assets of the Detroit Journal is a graphic illustration of the real value of a well established newspaper.

1902--Twenty Years Ago--1922

The arrangement of the court room in the new court house is not altogether satisfactory to the members of the bar and a meeting of the attorneys was held in the room this morning, together with the court house commission and the question of making changes was discussed.

SO MUCH TO DO--SO FEW TO DO IT.

How big a world, how many things to do—how few there are who take to task the heavy hard things.

Ease, "how little can I do for what I get"—this spirit is so general, no matter where you go or work.

"When do I get a raise?" and "How much will I get if I do do the thing?"—these are sample questions that run the minds of millions. No wonder there are such clouds hovering about the national life of every country in the world.

A golden reward for the man who doesn't have to be watched, who takes his trust into his heart and couples it to a song—getting the thing done RIGHT.

There is so much to do everywhere, all the time. There are so few to do it well.

I read in the little "Want-Ads" this phrase so often: "Wanted a place where conscientious effort will be appreciated." By the immortal gods, there aren't enough people of this sort to fill one-thousandth part of the places that call for such men and women!

The market places are overcrowded with those who want "soft" places. No sooner does such a place become vacant than a hundred apply and wait in line.

But oh, the vacant desks, the huge jobs, ready to render any reward to the man or woman big enough to fill them.

All through the fabric of this life does this condition exist.

My friend, if you want to be somebody—Do something, and think about the compensation afterwards. It always takes care of itself in adequate measure.

I am thinking of the poor immigrant boy who came to New York City and took the first job offered him, which was shoveling snow. It was a cold, severe winter and he froze his feet. But it wasn't many years before he became the trusted attorney for James J. Hill, the "Empire Builder."

There is so much to do. Won't you be the who who will help to do it to the full of your ability?

REVOLUTIONARIES SENTENCED TO DIE

Moscow, Aug. 9.—Sixteen social revolutionaries charged with conspiring against the soviet government and the lives of soviet officials were sentenced to death today.

It is understood that the executive committee of the soviet will commute the death sentences to terms of imprisonment. Such action has been advised in order to gain outside support for the Lenin administration.

CARDINAL SHOWS WHIM ABOUT GIRLS' DRESSES

Milan, Aug. 9.—The Cardinal of the Church of San Marco has his fears of modern women and their dress.

The "Daughters of Mary" attended a special communion at the Church of San Marco. The dresses worn caught the Cardinal's eye and he suspended services and inspected the girls individually, and only permitted those who were fittingly dressed to receive communion.

Rippling Rhymes

By WALT MASON

BE PATIENT.

Last evening as I drove my car along the thoroughfare, a tire blew out with frightful jar, at which I tore my hair. To me it is a punishment to change a rubber tire, for I'm a wide and portly gent, I fluently perspire. And so when I had stopped the bus, and it had ceased to choo, I roundly started in to cuss as Flanders troopers do. "Be patient," said my stately aunt, who on the back seat sat; "it makes me tired to hear you rant and see you smash your hat. Just wait till some one comes along and sees your damaged car, some youngster who is hale and strong, with kindness in his heart. He'll note that you are too obese to ply an iron tool, that when you toil the melted grease forms round you in a pool. And he'll observe your martyr looks as you survey the wreck, and he will say to you, 'Gadzooks! I'll change your tire, by heck!' For human kindness is a star that glows with changeless fire, and when men see how fat you are, they'll gladly change your tire." My aunt, she wears Elijah's robe, her visions all come true; and soon arrived a youth named Job, who made things good as new. And when I paid him half a buck, and gave him blessings mine, I said, while cranking up my truck, "This patience graft is fine!"

Such a never before was thrown on any screen in the world. A terrific race with women driving Arabian steeds to a smashing climax. While this feature of the race gives the audience its greatest thrill, the immense size and pageantry of the arena plays an important part in the emotions of the audience. LLOYD GEORGE ASKS $500,000 FOR BOOK.

The latest of English public persons planning to enter the memoir game, with the idea of extracting huge sums from America, is Premier Lloyd George. He hopes to make enough money from this effort to keep him comfortably the rest of his days after leaving office—in fact, his agents have mentioned a half million dollars outright as a fair price for the book.

Actual work on the book has not yet been started, nor has it been definitely decided whether Mr. Lloyd George will personally do the work or whether he will superintend the collection of data and direct some subordinate's pen in the preparation of the manuscript. It has been stated by some of the Premier's friends that if he is able to obtain a signed and sealed contract that would net him half a million dollars it might have a considerable influence on the time he would end his political career.

Although seemingly in perfect health and vigor at this time, the Premier, on more than one occasion in the last year, has emphasized the fact that he is tired, and, furthermore, that he is a comparatively poor man. He got into politics early in life and devoted almost his entire attention to the House of Commons, when he was simply a member. For sixteen years he has been a member of the Government.

The subject of memoirs was first broached to Mr. Lloyd George at about the same time Margot Asquith was retrieving her family fortunes with her book, but it was some time after that the Premier gave consent, and then an effort was made to keep secret his intention. The question now going the rounds is "how much will he tell?"

A USE FOR U. S. SHIPPING.

The coal strike, despite its obvious and various disadvantages, seems to have unearthed a real use for the nation's merchant marine, something that has not heretofore been discovered since the war. The government, according to Washington dispatches, is preparing to use no less than 160 of the shipping board steamers in the transportation of fuel from Europe.

President Harding is reported to have discussed the matter fully with Chairman Lasker of the shipping board and has consented to a trial of the plan, and Mr. Lasker believes that, without adding to existing facilities the board's ships can bring in as much as 800,000 tons a month, and that, if necessary, the total could be boosted beyond the million ton mark. Costly repairs would be necessary, however, and the outward trip would have to be made in ballast.

Nowadays many of the freighters returning to the United States are coming with less than one-third their cargo space occupied, so that the transportation of coal will fit in nicely in such an emergency. Eastern consumers have been buying great quantities of coal abroad in these last weeks and their problem may be materially simplified in this way.

The shipping board vessels were built to meet a war emergency, but most of them were launched too late to be of great service at that time. If, in this great domestic emergency they can be utilized to advantage, the people of the United States will feel much better about their enormous cost.

FISHING FOR COAL.

One of the interesting revelations connected with the coal strike is the vast volume of "river coal" available in streams flowing from the coal regions in Pennsylvania. This fuel has nothing to do with the so-called "white coal" which hydro-electric interests have been developing in recent years. It is plain black bituminous, spilled and washed into rivers in the course of production and carried by the water sometimes as far as 200 miles. It is said to exist now on some river bottoms in the form of a stratum several feet deep. The amount accessible by the process of dredging is estimable at many million tons. The water-washed fuel is considered better for many purposes than that coming fresh from the mines.

The salvaging of this coal naturally has been stimulated by the scarcity resulting from the strike. It is being fished for on a scale never known before. And it affords a notable commentary on the wasteful methods which in normal times attend the coal industry.

NEWSPAPER VALUES.

Two million dollars has just been paid for the name, good will and news franchises of the Detroit Journal. The printing press and other equipment is not included, but will be sold separately.

Many people do not realize that the biggest asset of a newspaper is not its thousands of dollars worth of machinery, but the good will, news franchises and name. An established newspaper occupying a morning or afternoon field has what is in effect an exclusive franchise. The publication of a newspaper has become such an expensive operation that once established it is almost impossible to dislodge it, and it is cheaper to buy it out at a big price than it is to attempt to put it out of business. The payment of two million dollars for the invisible assets of the Detroit Journal is a graphic illustration of the real value of a well established newspaper.

Today's Talk

SO MUCH TO DO—SO FEW TO DO IT.

How big a world, how many things to do—how few there are who take to task the heavy hard things.

Ease, "how little can I do for what I get"—this spirit is so general, no matter where you go or work.

"When do I get a raise?" and "How much will I get if I do the thing?"—these are sample questions that run the minds of millions. No wonder there are such clouds hovering about the national life of every country in the world.

A golden reward for the man who doesn't have to be watched, who takes his trust into his heart and couples it to a song—getting the thing done RIGHT!

There is so much to do everywhere, all the time. There are so few to do it well.

I read in the little "Want-Ads" this phrase so often: "Wanted a place where conscientious effort will be appreciated." By the immortal gods, there aren't enough people of this sort to fill one-thousandth part of the places that call for such men and women!

The market places are overcrowded with those who want "soft" places. No sooner does such a place become vacant than a hundred apply and wait in line.

But oh, the vacant desks, the huge jobs, ready to render any reward to the man or woman big enough to fill them.

All through the fabric of this life does this condition exist.

My friend, if you want to be somebody—Do something, and think about the compensation afterwards. It always takes care of itself in adequate measure.

I am thinking of the poor immigrant boy who came to New York City and took the first job offered him, which was shoveling snow. It was a cold, severe winter and he froze his feet. But it wasn't many years before he became the trusted attorney for James J. Hill, the "Empire Builder."

There is so much to do. Won't you be the who will help to do it to the full of your ability?

REVOLUTIONARIES SENTENCED TO DIE

Moscow, Aug. 9.—Sixteen social revolutionaries charged with conspiring against the soviet government and the lives of soviet officials were sentenced to death today.

It is understood that the executive committee of the soviet will commute the death sentences to terms of imprisonment. Such action has been advised in order to gain outside support for the Lenin administration.

CARDINAL SHOWS WHIM ABOUT GIRLS' DRESSES

Milan, Aug. 9.—The Cardinal of the Church of San Marco has his fears of modern women and their dress.

The "Daughters of Mary" attended a special communion at the Church of San Marco. The dresses worn caught the Cardinal's eye and he suspended services and inspected the girls individually, and only permitted those who were fittingly dressed to receive communion.

Rippling Rhymes

BE PATIENT.

Last evening as I drove my car along the thoroughfare, a tire blew out with frightful jar, at which I tore my hair. To me it is a punishment to change a rubber tire, for I'm a wide and portly gent, I fluently perspire. And so when I had stopped the bus, and it had ceased to choo, I roundly started in to cuss as Flanders troopers do. "Be patient," said my stately aunt, who on the back seat sat; "it makes me tired to hear you rant and see you smash your hat. Just wait till some one comes along and sees your damaged car, some youngster who is hale and strong, with kindness in his heart. He'll note that you are too obese to play an iron tool, that when you toil the melted grease forms round you in a pool. And he'll observe your martyr looks as you survey the wreck, and he will say to you, 'Gadzooks! I'll change your tire, by heck!' For human kindness is a star that glows with changeless fire, and when men see how fat you are, they'll gladly change your tire." My aunt, she wears Elijah's robe, her visions all come true; and soon arrived a youth named Job, who made things good as new. And when I paid him half a buck, and gave him blessings mine, I said, while cranking up my truck, "This patience graft is fine!"

YOUNG GIRL ON LONG TRIP TO REACH GERMAN CONVENT

New York, August 9.—Fourteen-year-old Helen Krawgoff sailed off alone yesterday on the last lap of a 12,000 mile journey that will take her to a country she has never seen, and where she knows no one.

She is bound for a convent in Germany, where her father, Serge Krawgoff, a Vladivostok merchant, is sending her to safety from Siberian bandits who, he declares, have slain or carried off thousands of children.

The little girl, whose mother is dead, had been in a school in Japan, but recently Krawgoff made a trip to Germany and arranged for her to continue her schooling there.

She came all the way from Japan alone, meeting her father, just returned from Germany, at the Grand Central terminal here. He put her on the steamship Reliance today, confident that she would arrive safely and be able to take care of herself.

BIBLE CONFERENCE DEVOTES SESSION TO STUDY OF RACES

The study of D. Haines' book on "The Trend of the Race," at the Tuesday afternoon session of the Xenia Bible Conference at the 1st M. E. Church was supplemented by members of the Wilberforce Quartet with their pianist, who furnished several selections for the audience. The program of the afternoon was of a pleasing nature, a feature being Dr. Whaling, who is capable of using the Negro dialect and gave a short Uncle Remus story.

The number received such applause, that the quartet was asked to return for the evening service for several numbers. Dr. Whaling responded at the evening service with a reading from the Uncle Remus literature. The quartet will also be present at the Wednesday evening service.

At the three o'clock service Tuesday, Dr. Whaling gave the first of his Bible studies. Dr. Whaling's series in the conference is connected with the "person of Jesus," his subject Tuesday being "What Jesus Claimed for Himself." The following were cited by the speaker: first equality with God, second, sinless perfection, and third, absolute humanity. The great Bible truths were illustrated with a fund of wit.

The seven o'clock service saw a greatly increased number of young people present, the members of the Christian Union of the Second United Presbyterian Church, attending in a body. "How to double the membership of your society" was the subject of the address of Mr. Gates, which was well received by the audience.

The program was completed with several selections by the Wilberforce quartet, and a second address by Mr. Gates. His subject was, "The Doorway Named Service" to which he found the keys suggested by the letters in the word "Service, S. E. Surrendered, Energies, R. V. Revealed, Vision, I. C. Inspired, Conquest, and E. Enter. The message closed with an earnest appeal for giving the whole life to the work of the Master.

The Wednesday afternoon program included the showing of lantern pictures of Egypt, to the children, in Mrs. J. P. White's department, and addresses by Dr. Whaling, and Mrs. Ferguson, each address complete in itself.

Wednesday evening at seven o'clock Mr. Gates will speak, and at eight o'clock Dr. Benson Baker, a Methodist Missionary from China will lecture, showing the conditions in that land, which is so much in the lime light at the present.

Thursday is Farmer's Day at the conference, and special addresses have been arranged by the Farm Bureau committee. At four o'clock an address by Professor Lively of Ohio State University will be given, and at eight o'clock, a lecture by L. J. Tabor, closely connected with Grange and agricultural activities.

Friday night Congressman S. D. Fess will speak, and Saturday afternoon, Dr. Moses Breeze will be present.

WOMEN GIVE OUT

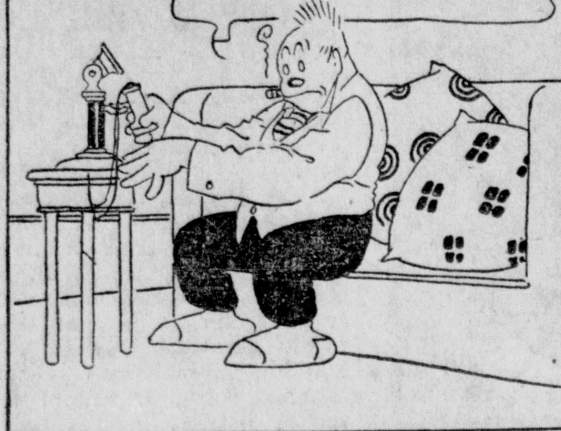

Housework is hard enough when healthy. Every Xenia woman who is having backache, blue and nervous spells, dizzy headaches and kidney or bladder troubles, should be glad to heed this Xenia experience:

Mrs. Woodrow C. Warner, 225 E. Third St., says: "Several years ago I was in misery with pains that seized me through my back. When I stooped to dust I got such terrible sharp stabs of pain through the small of my back I could hardly move at times. Mornings my back and shoulders felt as stiff as a board. I was tired and weak and became dizzy. I also had severe nervous spells. My kidneys were irregular in action and caused me considerable annoyance. Doan's Kidney Pills were highly recommended to me so I got some. Several boxes relieved me of the trouble; the pains in my back left and my kidneys became normal."

A Stenographer's Romance

BY JANE PHELPS

NELLIE TALKS OF MR. GEORGE

Chapter 39

A busy week followed. Mrs. Thompson was at first a bit disgruntled at the idea of losing her lodgers, but when she found they were going to take a flat, to "house-keep," she was really kind. She gave them an old kitchen table and a few almost worn out pots and pans, but which they could use for a time, and gradually replace with new.

"I could hardly help telling Mr. Fallon about it today," Nellie said. "He was so nice to me, spoke of how happy I looked and said I was doing better than he expected. I felt like saying: 'You would be happy too if you were going to have a home for the first time in your whole life!' I had to bite my tongue to keep from it. Then Miss Dorothy came in, and oh, I did want to tell her too! She came over to my desk and spoke to me, asked if her uncle were willing that I write a few letters for a charitable society she was interested in? Would I? I told her I'd do them on my own time, that I would bring my luncheon and do them tomorrow. I don't blame Mr. George for loving her. No one could help it. She's so pretty and so sweet, and so educated."

I heard her talk to her uncle about playing the violin, and she wears such wonderful clothes—not loud but, so stylish, and such hats! And she always wears white kid gloves, and there isn't a spot on them. I'll bet she has a new pair every time she goes out. You'd think a girl like that would stick up her nose at me, a stenographer, with no education, but she doesn't. She's just as nice as if I was her own kind. Of course she doesn't joke with me like she does with her uncle and Mrs. George but she doesn't act as if I was dirt either."

"You mean she isn't patronizing," Cora said when she stopped for breath, "real people never are."

"I'll look that word up right this minute!" A habit Nellie had when a word new to her was spoken.

Nellie as intensely interested in her work with "Fallon and Son," and intensely interested in them. And Miss Dorothy, Fallon was a sharer in that interest. The girl was a revelation to Nellie. She longed to have her visit the office more frequently, yet when she observed her dainty, teasing ways with her uncle, and Mr. George she invariably felt a little sad. She explained this feeling to herself, my saying it was the difference in them, not that she had to work, while Dorothy Fallon was a wealthy society girl; but her lack of the education that made her lack of poise, the freedom of expression so natural to the other girl of almost her own age.

She said very little of this feeling to the other two girls, knowing jealousy formed a part of it; but she increased her studies, tried hard to speak correctly poured over the dictionary, often discouraged, but never giving up.

"Some day I'll learn how to talk right, even if I didn't learn in a college," she said to Gladys. Miss Dorothy was a Vassar graduate, and occasionally brought one of her college friends to the office. Then Mr. George was sure to be called upon to escort them somewhere as soon as he could leave. It gave Nellie a curious sort of satisfaction that often he had to keep them waiting, occasionally would refuse outright to go with them. He, like his father, never neglected his business.

"One would think you had to work!" Dorothy once pouted, and Nellie listened for his answer.

"I do, Dot! If I didn't work, if father didn't, it would mean that others wouldn't be needed to work for us. A ship has to have a captain you know. If left to the crew it would soon founder." He had replied smilingly at her, then apologizing to her friend, a pretty girl dressed in the same fashion Dorothy affected—plainly, but in extreme style as far as cut and so forth went.

Nellie repeated Mr. George Fallon's reply to Cora. She said:

"I think your Mr. George a very remarkable young man. Of course I understand he isn't very youthful, but even so a man in his position would often leave when he had such a temptation. I shall remember what he said when I get my little place started." Cora had by no means given up her idea of having a business of her own; she had postponed it however until they should be settled in the flat, and saw how that worked out.

"He's the finest man in the world next to his father!" Nellie declared with emphasis.

"The world is a pretty big place, but I'll concede he is fine," Cora laughingly responded.

Of course she doesn't joke with me like she does with her uncle and Mrs. George but she doesn't act as if I was dirt either."

"You mean she isn't patronizing," Cora said when she stopped for breath. "real people never are."

"I'll look that word up right this minute!" A habit Nellie had when a new word to her was spoken.

Nellie as intensely interested in her work with "Fallon and Son," and intensely interested in them. And Miss Dorothy Fallon was a revelation to interest. The girl was a revelation to the office mope frequently, yet when ever she observed her dainty, teasing ways with her uncle, and Mr. George she invariably felt a little sad. She explained this feeling to herself, saying it was the difference in them, not that she had to work, while Dorothy Fallon was a wealthy society girl; but her lack of the education that made her lack of poise, the freedom of expression so natural to the other girl of almost her own age.

She said very little of this feeling to the other two girls, knowing jealousy formed a part of it; but she increased her studies, tried hard to speak correctly poured over the dictionary, often discouraged, but never giving up.

"Some day I'll learn how to talk right, even if I didn't learn in a college," she said to Gladys. Miss Dorothy was a Vassar graduate, and occasionally brought one of her college friends to the office. Then Mr. George was sure to be called upon to escort them somewhere as soon as he could leave. It gave Nellie a curious sort of satisfaction that often he had to keep them waiting, occasionally would refuse outright to go with them. He, like his father, never neglected his business.

"One would think you had to work!" Dorothy once pouted, and Nellie listened for his answer.

"I do, Dot! If I didn't work, if father didn't, it would mean that others wouldn't be needed to work for us. A ship has to have a captain you know. If left to the crew it would soon founder." He had replied smilingly at her, then apologizing to her friend, a pretty girl dressed in the same fashion Dorothy affected—plainly, but in extreme style as far as cut and so forth went.

Nellie repeated Mr. George Fallon's reply to Cora. She said:

"I think your Mr. George a very remarkable young man. Of course I understand he isn't very youthful, but even so a man in his position would often leave when he had such a temptation. I shall remember what he said when I get my little place started." Cora had by no means given up her idea of having a business of her own; she had postponed it however until they should be settled in the flat, and saw how that worked out.

"He's the finest man in the world next to his father!" Nellie declared with emphasis.

"The world is a pretty big place, but I'll concede he is fine," Cora laughingly responded.

WOMEN GIVE OUT

Housework is hard enough when healthy. Every Xenia woman who is having backache, blue and nervous spells, dizzy headaches and kidney or bladder troubles, should be glad to heed this Xenia experience:

Mrs. Woodrow C. Warner, 225 E. Third St., says: "Several years ago I was in misery with pains that seized me through my back. When I stooped to dust I got such terrible sharp stabs of pain through the small of my back I could hardly move at times. Mornings my back and shoulders felt as stiff as a board. I was tired and weak and became dizzy. I also had severe nervous spells. My kidneys were irregular in action and caused me considerable annoyance. Doan's Kidney Pills were highly recommended to me so I got some. Several boxes relieved me of the trouble; the pains in my back left and my kidneys became normal."
